

I go to the Girls' House because the activities are fun.

It is important to be able to talk to the instructors. They care about us.

The most important thing is the experience of being welcome at the Girls' House.

I've met wonderful people at the House and for the first time in my life I've made a real friend.

Turku Girls' House is part of Aurala Youth Association and is based on the Settlement movement's values. We receive funding from STEA (Funding Centre for Social Welfare and Health Organisations) and the city of Turku.

General information

Turku Girls' House in the city centre (Keskusta) offers free leisure activities and services for girls and young women aged 12 to 28, taking gender diversity into account.

All the activities of the Girls' House are professionally instructed and trained volunteers take part in the activities.

The activities are planned together with the visitors.

We follow the principles for a safer space at the Girls' House so that everyone can feel comfortable and welcome.

Forms of activity

Community-based activities

Avoim toiminta / Open house

During open house you can come to the Girls' House to, for example, spend time with others, eat snacks and play games. You can also get help and support with your homework.

Groups

We offer the opportunity to participate in various skills development groups.

Young mothers

We offer guided peer group activities for young mothers and their children.

Events, excursions and workshops

We organize various events and workshops at the Girls' House and go on excursions.

Individual support

Easy to reach, free and confidential

Individual support
